

Application/Internet Access Permission for Under 18's

Legislation by the Federal Government restricts Internet services for people under the age of eighteen years.

This legislation prohibits UQconnect from giving full Internet access to people under the age of eighteen without written permission by a parent or guardian. Details of this legislation are available at http://www.iaa.net.au/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=121&Itemid=33

To receive full access to the Internet, if you are under the age of eighteen, please complete this application and follow the directions below.

Internet accounts are offered to staff and students of the University of Queensland for work associated with learning, teaching, research and administration, and are bound by the University of Queensland's Internet Code of Practice. Please consult <http://www.uq.edu.au/hupp/contents/view.asp?s1=6&s2=10&s3=1>

For information on how to supervise use of the Internet and how to protect people from offensive material on the Internet, please consult our page on 'Content Filtering' <http://uqconnect.net/?page=27827> on the UQconnect web site or consult <http://www.cybersmartkids.com.au>
